3. [REDACTED] BRIEFING Called Norvill Jones,

Chief of Staff, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, by way of follow up to a request made by Hans Binnendijk, also of the Committee staff, to [REDACTED] for the Director to appear before the Subcommittee on Foreign Assistance, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, on Friday, 22 July, to discuss his position regarding [REDACTED]. I told Jones I wanted to verify that the Committee indeed wanted the Director up and pointed out the very limited nature of the Director's involvement in this subject. Jones said he understood and said that he thought the Director should come up, if he possibly could, although they had not received word from Chairman Hubert Humphrey (D., Minn.) regarding the Friday date. Jones later called back to say that Chairman Humphrey had approved the Friday session and we will confirm the Director's availability.

4. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Bill Miller, Staff Director, Senate Select Committee on Intelligence, on the secure phone, regarding our appearance before the Select Committee tomorrow on a number of items. Miller gave me an order for the agenda and I told him that we had a problem with respect to the [REDACTED] case. I pointed out that while

I subsequently called Paul Daly, Legislative Liaison, FBI, and raised this subject with him. Daly called me later in the day to say that he had taken this up within the Bureau but that Justice Department clearance would be required before they could agree to accompany us and this would not be forthcoming until tomorrow morning.
